

Brandenburg an der Havel in fever of Billiards

Ölmer Karakurt is the first champion

On the second day of the European Billiards Championships in Brandenburg/Germany the event was officially opened. At a ceremony with numerous guests and various show acts, the President of the European Billiards Association CEB, Mr. Wolfgang Rittmann, spoke the awaited words and opened this major sporting event just outside Berlin. Other speakers included CEB Vice-President Farouk El Barky from Egypt, the Secretary for Education and Sport of the State of Brandenburg, Burkhard Jungkamp, as well as the mayor of the city of Brandenburg, Dr. Dietlind Tiemann.

The men's 3-cushion competition on the match tables was the highlight of this day. In the round of the last 32 players the 16 seeded joined the tournament. And some of them soon found themselves back in the spectator role. Torbjörn Blomdahl (Sweden) lost early as well as Eddy Merckx from Belgium and Turkish hopes Tayfun Tasmemir and Adnan Yüksel. Just one round later big names like Martin Horn (Germany), Daniel Sanchez (Spain) and Jérémy Bury of France joined them.

Christian Rudolph from Germany was unexpected in the quarterfinal as well as his opponent Roland Forthomme (Belgium) and Dutch Glenn Hofmann. The next big surprise was the close 40:37-win of Hofmann over title holder Filipos Kasidokostas from Greece.

Sunday's semifinals are Glenn Hofmann vs. Christian Rudolph and Marco Zanetti (Italy) against World's number one, Frédéric Caudron from Belgium.

In the women's 3-cushion event it will be an all Dutch final on Sunday. Therese Klompenhouwer had no problems to reach the final as her opponent Karina Jetten had to survive a tough quarterfinal against Marianne Mortensen from Denmark. Gülsen Degener (Turkey) and Steffi Träm from Germany lost in the semis and will receive the bronze medal on tomorrow's awards ceremony.

Meanwhile the first decision of the tournament fell in the juniors 3-cushion tournament. Turkish favorite Ölmer Karakurt secured his gold medal by a 30:20-win after 28 innings. Silver went to the Spaniard Juan David Garcia Zapata, who had previously beaten Wesley van Apers from Belgium. The second bronze medal went to Zapata's fellow countryman David Martinez.

Today also the juniors Birilli-Event started. In two groups of four players the Italians showed their superiority and brought three athletes in the semi-finals. Only Danish Sebastien Skott could break into this phalanx while the two Germans Clemens Anger and Christopher Schock finished third in their group.

In the youth division the final four in the Libre-discipline are fixed. The outstanding Dutchmen Sam van Etten and Jim van de Zalm made it to the semis as well as Jason Petit (France) and Germans Tobias Bouerdick. The semi-finals will follow on Sunday.

The club-teams event in the youth division also started with the group stages today. The finals will be played on Sunday.

Furthermore the 47th CEB-Congress took place in Brandenburg. President Wolfgang Rittmann handed over a check of 3.000,00 Euro to the president of the French Billiards Federation, Mr. Jean-Paul Sinanian, for going new ways to promote the billiards-sport.
